LIAISON Claudia Higgins, Senate Governmental Affairs Committee staff, called and asked if the Agency, due to security, ever denies the existence of records to an individual requesting information concerning himself under the Privacy Act, though such records exist. She said she is reviewing the implementation of the Act by Federal agencies. I explained that if there is no record, we so advise the requester. If there are matters of sensitivity which we cannot disclose, we inform the requester that there are no Agency records which can be made available. Ms. Higgins was satisfied with this manner of handling. The query and my response were previously discussed with OGC. 4. BRIEFING Called Ron Lehman, on the staff of Senator Dewey F. Bartlett (R., Okla.), and confirmed the briefing on Soviet civil defense for Wednesday, 15 June, at 3:00 p.m., in Senator Bartlett's office, Room 140 Russell Building. LIAISON Loch Johnson, in the office of Senator Frank Church (D., Idaho), called to request the history of U.S. intelligence efforts dating back to the Revolutionary War, which had been mentioned by former Director William Colby during the Church Committee investigations. I told Johnson that I would send him a copy of the CIA's publication which was a contribution to the bicentennial anniversary and covered such past history; this has been done. LIAISON DIA, called to report the results of his session with Mike Glennon, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, and of his intent to see the staffers of the Senate Armed Services Committee and the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence on the possible conflict of jurisdiction between the Foreign Relations Committee and these Committees. Referring to the blind siding of General Harold Brown, Secretary of	2
25X1	Defense, asked if we would permit a DIA representative to sit in on the Director's briefing on the Hill on the Korean question. I said I didn't know what the Director's attitude would be and certainly appreciate the problem, but we should also consider the impact of creating the impression that the DCI's testimony is being monitored by other Executive departments and agencies and I suggested that also consider the alternative of our providing DOD with a copy of the testimony on the day that it is delivered, to be followed up with a call from us on the questions and answers that followed.	2

Through DDI/CSS, a meeting 25X1 was arranged for 14 June at 1030 hours. I advised Levinson. BRIEFING Charles Sorrels, of the 25X1 17. Congressional Budget Office, called DDI/CSS to ask for a briefing this week from the Office of Weapons Intelligence on Soviet ABM and air defense activity. I said I would check on this and get back to Sorrels. OWI is ready to brief on the ABM, but the air defense experts are not available this week. 25X1 LIAISON Peter Hunt, of the staff of the 18. House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Subcommittee on Energy and Power, called to follow up an earlier request for a World War II German government report on the "liquid air bomb" phenomenon which he had read about in A Man Called Intrepid, page 342. His Subcommittee is interested in matters of transport of liquified natural gas, and he thought the report might be relevant. I referred the matter to [DDI/CSS. 25X1 LIAISON Arthur Houghton, of the personal 25X1 19. staff of Senator Dick Clark (D., Iowa), called to ask if the Senator could see a recent CIA publication, "The Intelligence Handbook on Soviet Economic and Military Aid to Free World LDCs" (ER-77-10138), which President Carter had displayed during a recent briefing of Congressional members. OLC, suggested we might make the publication, classified 25X1 Secret, available to Senator Clark through Senator Clark's designee on the staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Pauline Baker. I advised SA/DDCI, of a possible complication: Houghton had 25X1 originally been informed that the publication which the Senator sought was unclassified, and there was some speculation that its Secret classification, and our reluctance to have a personal staffer see a classified document, might cause a problem with Houghton. It did not. Houghton said that it would be agreeable to the Senator to read the publication in the Committee offices, and that he himself did not need to see the 1975 unclassified version DDI/CSS, agreed that the publication go to of the report. 25X1 the Committee via courier, and I agreed to make the arrangements with Baker.
